SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

This prospectus relates to the offer and sale from time to time by the selling stockholders of up to 1,400,198 shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock. Such shares were issued to the selling stockholders in a transaction exempt from registration under the Securities Act. More specifically, such shares were issued to the selling stockholders as partial consideration for the sale to us of certain assets pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, dated November 20, 2012 (the “Purchase Agreement”), among EZCORP Online, Inc., EZCORP, Inc., Hayfield Investment Partners, LLC and certain subsidiaries of Hayfield Investment Partners, LLC, as amended on December 12, 2012 by the original parties to the Purchase Agreement and the members of Hayfield Investment Partners, LLC. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, we agreed to, among other things, file a registration statement with the SEC to register the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock issued to the selling stockholders upon the closing of such acquisition.

We understand certain selling stockholders have adopted or may in the future adopt prearranged Rule 10b5-1 stock trading plans allowing them to sell some or all of their shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock over time as part of their financial, tax and/or estate planning. The selling stockholders may sell their shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock registered under this registration statement through such plans. Except as otherwise disclosed herein, none of the selling stockholders or any of their respective affiliates has, or within the past three years has had, any material relationship with us or any of our predecessors or affiliates.

A selling stockholder may be deemed to be, under interpretations of the staff of the SEC, an “underwriter” within the meaning of the Securities Act to the extent it is (i) a registered broker-dealer or (ii) an affiliate of a registered broker dealer if the selling stockholder did not acquire its shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock in the ordinary course of business or had an agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Resales by the Selling Stockholders

We are registering the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock on behalf of the selling stockholders pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, and we will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale by the selling stockholders of any such shares. The selling stockholders may offer the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock from time to time, either in increments or in a single transaction. The selling stockholders may also decide not to sell all the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock they are allowed to sell under this prospectus. The selling stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale.

Types of Sale Transactions

The selling stockholders may sell the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock offered by this prospectus at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at negotiated prices or at fixed prices that may be changed. Sales of shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock by the selling stockholders may occur from time to time in one or more of the following types of transactions (which may involve crosses or block transactions):

- through the NASDAQ Global Select Market or any other securities exchange that quotes our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock;
- in the over-the-counter market;
- in transactions other than on those exchanges or in the over-the-counter market (including negotiated transactions and other private transactions);
- in short sales (sales of shares completed by delivery of borrowed stock) of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock, in transactions to cover short sales or otherwise in connection with short sales;
- by pledge to secure debts and other obligations or on foreclosure of a pledge;
- through put or call options, including the writing of exchange-traded call options, or other hedging transactions related to our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- in a combination of any of the above transactions; or
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions from time to time in which they may:

- enter into transactions with a broker-dealer or any other person in connection with which such broker-dealer or other person will engage in short sales of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock, in which case such broker-dealer or other person may use shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock received from the selling stockholders to close out its short positions;
- sell our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock short itself and redeliver shares offered by this prospectus to close out its short positions or to close out stock loans incurred in connection with its short positions;
- enter into option or other types of transactions that require the selling stockholders to deliver our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock to a broker-dealer or any other person, who will then resell or transfer the common stock under this prospectus; or
- loan or pledge our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock to a broker-dealer or any other person, who may sell the loaned shares or, in an event of default in the case of a pledge, sell the pledged shares under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may use broker-dealers or other persons to sell their shares in transactions that may include one or more of the following:

- a block trade in which a broker-dealer or other person may resell a portion of the block, as principal or agent, in order to facilitate the transaction;

- purchases by a broker-dealer or other person, as principal, and resale by the broker-dealer or other person for its account; or
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker-dealer solicits purchasers.

Resales by the selling stockholders may be made directly to investors or through securities firms acting as underwriters, brokers or dealers. When resales are to be made through a securities firm, the securities firm may be engaged to act as the selling stockholder's agent in the resale of the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock by the selling stockholder or the securities firm may purchase shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock from the selling stockholder as principal and thereafter resell those shares from time to time. The fees earned by or paid to the securities firm may be the normal stock exchange commission or negotiated commissions or underwriting discounts or concessions to the extent permissible. The securities firm may resell the securities through other securities dealers, and commissions or concessions to those other dealers may be allowed.

The selling stockholders and any agent, broker or dealer that participates in sales of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock offered by this prospectus may be deemed "underwriters" under the Securities Act, and any commissions or other consideration received by any agent, broker or dealer may be considered underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act.

To our knowledge, there are currently no plans, arrangements or understandings between any selling stockholders and any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock by the selling stockholders, except that we understand certain selling stockholders have adopted or may in the future adopt written plans, known as Rule 10b5-1 stock trading plans, allowing them to sell some or all of their shares over time as part of their financial, tax and/or estate planning. Under a Rule 10b5-1 plan, a broker executes trades pursuant to parameters established by a selling stockholder when entering into the plan, without further direction from the selling stockholder.

Instead of selling shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock under this prospectus, the selling stockholders may sell shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock in compliance with the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available.

The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any agent, broker or dealer that participates in sales of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock against liabilities arising under the Securities Act from sales of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock.

Effectiveness of Registration Statement

Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, we will keep the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part continuously effective for a period ending on the later of (i) the sale of all of the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock received pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, and (ii) the date on which all such shares may be sold under Rule 144 of the Securities Act without any limitation as to volume or manner of sale and without the requirement for us to be in compliance with the current public information requirement of Rule 144.

We are permitted to suspend the use of this prospectus if we have determined that continued use would require public disclosure by us of material non-public information. Such suspensions shall be for a period not to exceed 45 consecutive days and an aggregate of 90 days during any 12-month period.

Expenses of this Offering

We have agreed, among other things, to pay all costs, fees and expenses incurred by us in connection with the registration of the shares of our Class A Non-Voting Common Stock covered by this prospectus, including all SEC fees, blue sky fees, printing expenses, transfer agent fees and legal and accounting fees. Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Article Eighth of the Company’s Amended Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Company shall indemnify its present or former directors and officers, and may indemnify any employee or agent of the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by law, including under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “DGCL”).

Section 145(a) of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person’s conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which the action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145(c) of the DGCL provides that to the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 145(a) and (b), or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection therewith.

Section 145(d) of the DGCL provides that any indemnification under Section 145(a) and (b) (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 145(a) and (b). The determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is a director or officer of the corporation at the time of such determination, (1) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, (2) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, (3) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion or (4) by the stockholders.

Section 145(e) of the DGCL provides that expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director of the corporation in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized under Section 145. The expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents of the corporation, or by persons serving at the request of the corporation as directors, officers, employees or agents of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, may be so paid upon those terms and conditions, if any, as the corporation deems appropriate.

Section 145(f) of the DGCL provides that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Section 145(g) of the DGCL provides that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in any such capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against such liability under Section 145. The Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance for the benefit of its directors and officers.

Section 145(j) of the DGCL provides that the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, Section 145 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

The above discussion of the Company's Amended Certificate of Incorporation and the DGCL is not intended to be exhaustive and is respectively qualified by entirety to the Company's Amended Certificate of Incorporation and the DGCL.

Item 16. Exhibits

The attached Exhibit Index is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 17. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”);
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the “Calculation of Registration Fee” table in the effective registration statement; and
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement;

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering;
- (4) That, for purposes of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:
 - (i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and
 - (ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date;

- (b) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(s) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by the registrant is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we are of the opinion that the Shares have been validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable.
